Statement of the Global Methodist Church Regarding Actions of the United Methodist Church at its General Conference

The Global Methodist Church is aware of recent decisions made by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church with respect to its definition of marriage and its ordination standards. The Global Methodist Church operates independently from The United Methodist Church and therefore, we do not have any affiliation with their decisions, nor do we wish to comment or provide commentary on the actions of other religious organizations.

The Global Methodist Church maintains its steadfast commitment to advancing its mission, which involves proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ and serving its community of more than 4,501 churches and congregational members worldwide. Rooted in the teachings of Jesus Christ and the historic confessions of the Christian faith proclaimed over the past two thousand years, The Global Methodist Church remains dedicated to upholding its denomination's strong foundation.
